American Politics--The Fenians The political news lately received from the United States is of a pacific and conservative character. The work of Reconstruction proceeds at a very unsatisfactory rate; but as Congress has announced its intention of sitting until the fall, the members will certainly fail in their duty should they not hit upon a feasible plan for the readmission of the Southerners to all the rights and privileges of sovereign States. The latest plan proposed is in the form of an amendment to the Constitution. The first clause secures civil rights to all classes by means of a constitutional amendment. Its second point is a provision basing representation substantially upon numbers, but securing the advantages to be derived from making population the basis by declaring that whenever in any State the franchise is denied to any of its male citizens 21 years of age, or abridged to them, except for particination in rebellion or other crime, the basis of representation in such State shall be reduced in the proportion which the n mber of such male citizens thus excluded from the franchise shall bear to the whole number of her adult male population. Under the operation of this arrangement, if South Carolina, for instance, permits her negroes to vote, she will increase her present power in Congress, because all her blacks will be counted in the enumeration, instead of only three-fiths of them, as under the present system. But if she would thus get six Representatives in Congress, all told, and sees fit to exclude the blacks from voting, and her male blacks over 21 years of age shall be equal to one-third 8000 prisoners and numerous trophics in of the total adult male population, guns, &c. her representation would be reduced to four members of Congress. The effect of the plan now proposed is to encourage every State, North and South, to enlarge and extend the franchise, by increasing or diminishing its political power just as it shall enlarge or restrict the enjoyment of the franchise. The remaining clause of the proposed constitutional amendment simply forbids the payment of the rebel war debt, or the allowance of any claim for the loss of slaves. According to our Parliamentary rules, a measure when once disposed of cannot be again brought forward during the same session of Parliament; but the rules of the American Congress appear to be more elastic and to admit of the introduction of measures at least twice during the same session, for we notice that the Freedmen's Bureau Bill- a one-sided piece of legislation-has been again passed and submitted to the President for approval or rejection. Mr Johnson having been ill recently, had not expressed his intention concerning it up to latest

Being des and money. Captain John B. Urmy, who titute of camp equipage, the lads were has a commission as Brigadier General in quartered at barns and farm-houses; the Liberal army, is in command. After a but foreging parties that roamed rendezvous with a similar expedition, which through the country failed to procure sufficient provisions to feed the two thousand "Irish Republicans." On the fourth day of campaigning, finding supplies short, and that four thousand British Regulars were in their front, the "army" mutinied and Gen. after being forty-three days in the long-boat Spear decided to retreat, which he did in good order, to the town of Malone, in New York State, where his men made free with the property and eatables of the American farmers and merchants, who had at first welcomed the presence of the "army" as likely to bring them a good stroke of business In his report, General Spear declares that he would "rather have been shot" than fall back as he was compelled to do. But, while his "spirit was willing the fiesh was weak," for we find that the fiesh was weak," for we find that when he heard of the near approach of the British army, his legs carried him over the border, beyond the reach of harm or the enemy's bullets. The Fenian cause has received a deathblow from this impotent attempt at invasion, and but little more will be heard of the leaders or their dupes.

On the return of H. B. Majesty's corvet Pallas to England after a short cruise, she reported having found at Madeira the Spanish screw unarmed frigate Gerona bearing the commodore's broad pennant, and a small iron clad under English colors; the latter was said to be bound for Chilean waters and was being watched evidently by the Spanish frigate. She was fitted with two funnels, carried two pole masts without yards, carried her armament in a central iron cased square battery The iron clad sailed from Madeira for Rio, unmolested by the Spanish frigate or the morning of May 17th. The Spanish vessel remained until the morning of the 19th when she sailed, it was understood on a cruise off the Island.

MARKET AND GENERAL REPORT

There is a very perceptible improvement i no means lively. Many persons have returned from the Big Bend mines disappointed at finding Regret is expressed that the Mining Board the diggings neither so shallow or so easily wor-ked as some accounts have represented, and the consequence is, that they speak desparagingly of the mines, which naturally throws a shade of anxious uncertainty over the minds of merchants shipping goods in that direction. Although these diggings turn out to be deeper than was at first expected, it is a fact well established that there is gold in good paying quantities; but whether it is as widely diffused as previously stated, remains yet to be proved. By late advices we learn that 500 ounces of gold were shipped by steamer down the Columbia from that locality. All the lates from Portland, having crossed the Columbia accounts from Cariboo District speak confidently strong N. W. winds. She brings 18 passenof the promised yield from the various new creek in that section of the country, and augur well for good returns being made this season. gers, including several U. COMMERCIAL REPORT

BACON .- Stocks large, and prices of all kinds

BEANS - Market dull, and prices have a down ward tendency. CANDLES .- Sperm, Hales, and Price's Bel-mont none in the market, and in demand. CHEESE.—Chedder and Eastern states noncoffered and much wanted.

CURRANTS .- Zante in tins scarce, and ru-

CLOTHING.—Stocks have for some time been too large for the demand, and forced sales have had the effect of making prices nominal. COFFEE.—No arrivals of any importance for some time past, and stocks of finer qualities are very light.

DRY GOODS.—Stocks still remain very light, having had no important additions since our last issue, but the demand is very limited.

DRIED FRUITS.—Smyrna figs none offered, and much wanted. Raisins, bunch Muscatel and Layer scarce.

Layer scarce.

FLOUR.—Continued arrivals have kept stocks up, and prices have been gradually declining. For the present, however, San Francisco prices with $6.50 4y ton for freight and wharfage, and 7½ per cent for commission added, may be taken as a fair quotation of our market, for cash or negoci-

LIQUOIS & WINES.—Scotch Whiskey in case and bulk, very little in importers hands, and in fair demand. Gioger Brandy very scarce, but sale limited. Brandy, market much overstocked, a supply on hand sufficient or a year or two, and more on the way. Port, the consumption is very limited of this wine, and the market has for some time been overstocked. Sherry, Champagne, Claret and other Wines, stocks are also over-large and prices low, with conciderable reduction to safe wholesale buyers.

MALT LIQUORS.—Favorite brands, average stocks, and moderate demand at fair rates. Outside brands unsaleable, and market overstocked. OIL.—Olive, in bottle, smallest sizes scarce, and ruling high. Linseed, boiled and raw scarce, none in first hands.

PAINTS.—White Lead and Zinc first class in importers hands.

PRESERVED MEATS.—English, best brands in 2 lb tins, for ships use, stocks very light.

SOAP.—Yellow, English, of the following brands, Taylor & Timmins, Liverpool; Cowan s. London; Tennent's, Glasgow; none in the market, and in demand.

SUGARS.— Cossipore, none offering. Sandwich Island yellow, market healthy, and prices firm; average stocks.

N. B.—All Provisions, Oilman's Stores and articles of consumption, shipped to this market, should, as a general rule, be of the best qualities and brands.

CRICKET .- The weather was delightful on Saturday, and a large number of persons repaired to Beacon Hill to witness the return match of the Victoria Club and Eleven of H. M. shins Sutlei and Scout. The wickets were pitched on the new ground, which is a de cided improvement on the old one. The Diana will leave Brodrick's wharf this morning twent in first and made 80 runs. The ing, at half-past 8 o'clock, with her passengers Club in their first innings scored 94. After partaking of refreshments at the Park Hotel, the Fleet went in for their second innings, and were disposed of for 55, making a total of 135, leaving the Victorians only 42 to beat, which they accomplished with six wickets to go down. On the side of the Navy the highest scores were made by Card, Levett, Thom and Saville; and on the part of the Club, by Wallace, Barnett and Richardson The bowling of Thom and Hyne, on the part of the Navy, and of Richardson and Bacon, on the part of the Victorians, was very effective. Lieutenant Veale and Mr E. R. Thomas acted as scorers, and Corporal Lawrence and Mr Mohun, C. E, as umpires.

IMPROVING .- Owing to the numerous arrivals, up Sound trade, which had been very dull for some time, is improving, and there is a brisk demand for lumber at the mills there and on this side.

The Loss of the Bark "Kent. Capt. Naunton, of the British bark Kent, has sent a private letter to a friend in this city, concerning the recent disaster, from presentations which may be made to him on which we make the following extracts: San Francisco, 7th July, 1866. Everything went all right with the ship and cargo of lumber at Mazatlan, and I felt there on 28th April for Carmen Island, and loaded 315 tons of salt; which port I left on the 21st of May last, bound to Portland. The cargo belonged entirely to myself, and I expected to make a little over freight on it. We had only been out about 21 hours, with very light airs and calms, when about 3 a. m. of the 22d, a steamer was seen on the bow about three miles off, coming apparently in our direction. in our direction. As we were becaln in our direction. As we were becamed, the sea perfectly smooth, and the weather beautifully clear, as it always is in that part, and almost day-break, I felt no uncasiness, especially as our lights were exhibited and burning brilliantly, but the steatmer rapidly neared us and still appeared to take no notice. neared us and still appeared to take no notice. I took the binnacle lamp and held it up myself and fully expected this would have drawn their attention. After waiting about five minutes longer she came within hail, and I commenced shouting as loud as I could, and at last succeeded in waking them up, when I heard an order on board the steamer, "hard prost!" A few seamly after she straked. I heard an order on board the steamer, "hard aport." A few seconds after she struck us right amidship, going at full speed, cutting us down two planks below the water edge. Her wheels only stopped just as she struck us; she then backed off. Finding my vessel making three inches per minute, I got out our boat and sent my dear wite off on board the steamer, which served to be the Ocean. our boat and sont my dear wife on o board the steamer, which proved to be the Oregon, from this port bound to the mouth of the Colorado river. We all went on board the steamer after seeing the bark go down. I can assure you the little Kent never looked more beautiful than little Kent never looked more beautiful than when she took her first plunge and went down head foremost, with all her canvass set. She appeared to raise her stern up in the air, and her bright copper bottom, reflecting the rays of the rising sun, was a grand sight. In about forty minutes from the time of the collision there was nothing but a few little pieces of those wood to be seen of what was as pretty a little vessel as was on the coast. We stayed on the steamer all the time until our arrival here. I am sorry to say our treatment there here. I am sorry to say our treatment ther verbosity, Doctor, prune the reply of saw could expect under the circumstances.

Of course the steamer's people deny their liability, but it is proved now that there was no look-out, and the officer of the watch was in his room asteep. I have brought a suit in the Court of Admiralty for $70,000 damages, and Holloway's Pills-Nervous Debility-Perby changeable weather that the ordinary office of life become a labor, the necessity of thinkin a toil. The nervous system is unhinged, and each day brings to such pitiable objects nothing but a succession of real or faucied miseries ing but a succession of real or fancied miseries. To escape from such torments it is only necessary to take Holloway's Pills, which purify and strengthen a debillitated, shaken constitution more than any other medicine in the world. They cleanse the body from all impurities, gives tone to the stomach, regularity to the bowels, kidneys and bladder. They remove dejection of spirits and bodily lassitude, and restore to the mind decision and cheerfulness.

SOMETHING THE WHOLE COMMUNITY SHOULD KNOW.—The traveler, furnished with Bristol's Sugar Coated Pills, is armed against those diseases of the stomach, liver, and bowels common to all climates. The first thing to be common to all climates. The first thing to be done, in case of a billous attack, is to empty the bowels. Bristol's Sugar coated Pills do this rapidly, but not rudely. As they cleanse, they soothe and heal. There is an emolliout principle in them that prevents the irritation which thorough purgation would otherwise create. None of the sharp, cutting, spasmodic pains, which accompany the action of mineral pains, which accompany the action of cathartics, are ever experienced during their operation. They have no drawback, either immediate or contingent, and leave every or gan they influence in a healthy state. For dyspepsia, piles, liver complaint, sick headdyspepsia, piles, liver complaint, sick headache, suppression, vertigo, colie, and heartburn, they are the one thing needful, and no other known medicine can supply their place. They retain their properties unchanged in all climates, being put up in glass vials. In all cases arising from, or aggravated by impure blood, Bristol's Sursuparilla should be used in connection with the Pills. For sale by all Torugrists. Druggists.

DIFFERENT AS LIFE FROM DEATH .- This is the distinction between Bristol's Sarsaparilla and all Mercurial Medicines. The latter poisons the blood, the former purifies and invigorates it. When the seeds of death have been ates it. When the seeds of death have been introduced into the veins by the use of mineral nostrums nothing will arrest the march of the victim to the grave save this poison-conquering antidote. So also when the virus of natural disease, working through the venous system, is developed in scrottlous ulcers, tumors, carbuncles, white-swellings, felons, cruptions, or any other fearful external malady this great remedy acts chemically upon the deprayed blood and other animal fluids, changing them as if by a miracle, to pure and nour-isbing streams, bearing health and vigor into the arreas through which they flow. For sale ng them as if by a miracle, to pure and nou-ibling streams, bearing health and vigor in the organs through which they flow. For sa y all Druggists.
